International Holocaust Conference

Silence, Speech, Memory, Message, and Reconciliation – after 75 Years

This conference addresses the latest developments in Holocaust research, especially in relation to contemporary political and cultural trends in Europe. These include the rise of right-wing governments, of nationalist and racist discourses, and Holocaust revisionism and denial, in the context of greater emphasis being placed on the use of new technology in memorialisation and education as we face the passing of the survivor generation.

We will ask what the practical and theoretical implications are for Holocaust research and education in the light of these new trends, and how the work of researchers, museologists, teachers and others can attempt to answer back to their negative political implications. In doing so, we will explore the long history of Holocaust education in Germany, the narratives about its success, and whether this is borne out in fact, as well as whether such a model can be applied in other national contexts and be a kind of impulse for future work and research.

Die Konferenz beschäftigt sich mit aktuellen Ergebnissen im Bereich der Holocaust-Forschung, im Besonderen hinsichtlich der jüngsten politischen und kulturellen Entwicklungen in Europa. Diese umfassen den Aufstieg rechtsgerichteter Regierungen ebenso wie nationalistische und rassistische Diskurse, revisionistische Sichtweisen des Holocaust und dessen Leugnung. In diesem Rahmen sollen vor allem auch neuere technologische und mediale Möglichkeiten im Blick auf Bildungs- und Erinnerungsprozesse eine besondere Berücksichtigung finden, zumal das Ende der Möglichkeiten, Überlebende und andere Zeitzeugen zu befragen, abzusehen ist.

Zu fragen ist nach den praktischen und theoretischen Ansatzpunkten, die sich aus dieser Lage für die weitere Holocaust-Forschung und -Aufarbeitung in aktuellen Bildungs-, Erinnerungs- und Erziehungszusammenhängen ergeben und wie ForscherInnen, Museumsgestalter, LehrerInnen und andere Impulsgeber sich in ihrer Arbeit den genannten negativen Entwicklungen gegenüber verhalten können. Dazu soll dann auch die lange Geschichte der Aufarbeitung des Holocaust in Deutschland herangezogen werden. Auch ist die Frage nach ihrem „Erfolg“ zu stellen und in wieweit sich dieser belegen lässt. Schließlich wird auch zu diskutieren sein, ob sich hieraus Impulse für andere nationale Kontexte und für eine weitergehende Arbeit in der Zukunft gewinnen lassen?
